U.S. Conference of Mayors President and Hempstead Mayor James A. Garner Addresses 41st Annual Meeting of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors April 22, 2004

Washington, D.C. – The U.S. Conference of Mayors President and Hempstead (NY) Mayor James A. Garner will give the keynote address at the Grand Opening Session of the 41st Annual Meeting of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors (NJCM) on Thursday, April 22 in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The topic for this year's conference is "Mayors and the New Economy... Property Taxes and More".

NJCM was founded in 1963 by a small group of New Jersey mayors who were interested in joining forces as a lobbying body in the interest of mayors. Today, it is the largest and oldest statewide mayors conference in the nation with offices in the state's capitol, Trenton, and in South Jersey.

This conference is held annually in Atlantic City with an average attendance of just over 1000 participants and includes more than 100 exhibitors.

WHO: The U. S. Conference of Mayors President and Hempstead (NY) Mayor James A. Garner
