U.S. Conference of Mayors Advisory Board Chair, Long Beach Mayor Beverly O'Neill Participates in International Metropolis Board Meeting in Istanbul, Turkey

Istanbul, Turkey – U.S. Conference of Mayors Advisory Board Chair, Long Beach, California Mayor Beverly O'Neill and Conference Executive Director Tom Cochran attended the Metropolis Association Board Meeting in Istanbul, Turkey, September 28-October 1, 2003. Mayor O'Neill presented on two key issues during the meeting. On Monday, September 29, Mayor O'Neill gave a presentation during a special seminar on "Mobility in Major Cities" focusing on Freight Management Strategies in Large Cities. On Tuesday, September 30, Mayor O'Neill will discuss "Sustainable Car Usage in Large Cities" and will participate in an international press conference.

Established in 1985, the Metropolis Association is an international network of global cities. While individually different, these major metropolises from around the world share modern-day concerns about issues such as urban planning and development, the economy, health, major environmental issues, transportation, infrastructure and communications.
